Porcupine Balls

from Jane

I've had since I was a child in the fifties. It sounds very much like the Snowball recipe that a Blog reader was asking for but we call it Porcupine Balls. It was given to my mother by a cousin and we've made it every Christmas for nearly fifty years now, I can't imagine the holiday without it. I've changed the recipe as packaging has changed over the years but the result is the same.

Porcupine Balls

2 boxes (14+ ounces in weight) of Graham crackers
3 cans Eaglebrand sweetened condensed milk
2 packages chocolate chips

Mix all together and form into small balls. Roll each ball in sweetened shredded coconut and chill.
